

Exodus Nuclear Sound & Studios

Many dancehall and reggae fans remember Exodus Nuclear Sound from Frontline and House of Leo days. For those old or new it is still a potent match in the industry. With our unmatched collection of exclusive dub plates from foundation artists and current stars, an extensive collection of 45's and with selectors/djs who know how to play them, Exodus Nuclear Sound can distinguish itself at any function. Exodus has direct access to dancehall veterans as well as the current stars. With our own dub/recording studio and based on our strong relationships with artists forged during many years in the business, Exodus Nuclear is able to provide you with the highest quality dub plates for your sound system or jingles for your radio program at the best prices.
